FIRST WORD

Actress Monica Bedi's Mumbai apartment combines elements of old-world charm with modern-day sensibilities

Tatement pieces provide the perfect balance to intricate clothing. By wearing bigger pieces you can get away with wearing less in terms of numbers. Big earrings frame the face, necklaces close to the neck complement the gown and cuffs dress up the arm. One or all would work for a reception or a party. Also, the sheer elegance of polki and gold is timeless. They can easily help you crossover from an eastern to a western look. Always, try and find the balance between clothes and jewellery. Just a choker is enough to look elegant without interfering with the intricacy of the sari. Statement pieces provide the perfect balance to intricate clothing.
